```
                        S1
                        |
                        S
                       / \
                      VP   .
                    / | \   |
                  VB  NP  PP  .
                  |   /\   |  \
                 Add JJ NN  TO  NP
                  |   |   |  |  /|\ \
              enough milk to DT NN NN  S
                              |   |   |   |
                             the broth mixture VP
                                              / \
                                             TO  VP
                                             |   / \
                                             to VB  NP
                                                |   /  \
                                             equal  QP  NNS
                                                   / \   |
                                                  CD  CD cups
                                                  |   |
                                                  2  1/2
```

combine({ing19, ing4}, ing20, "milk and broth", "add only enough so the total equals 2 1/2 cups")